“As a radio show host Claudio is unlike anyone in the medium today. He skillfully manages to navigate the art of the interview into a back porch or pub style conversation knowing full well when to bring it all full circle in conclusion. Most of his guests don't even realize that an interview is taking place because of all of the spontaneous conversational fun they're having with their very capable and talented host.”

Ira David Wood, III “dethroning” Claudio

“Claudio will engage anyone in conversation no matter the subject or discipline and bring about some unexpected twists and turns as he explores the minds of his guests. He is a straight talker and tells it like it is whether that is the popular approach or not but possesses an unusual wit and charm in so doing that keeps matters calm and in perspective. His approach is very unrehearsed and skillfully spontaneous. And then there is the matter of his alluring voice...”

Gary Jensen / Musician, Singer, Songwriter with a long history of performing with Claudio in the Virgin Islands on Radio and many, many Stages.
